- Declined – Criteria not satisfied.

We do not discuss individual credit reports with applicants. You will be provided with the name, address and phone number of the consumer-reporting agency we used, and you must contact them directly if you choose to dispute anything they reported to us about your credit.

It is important to note that just because you are given an application for an apartment it does not mean a particular apartment is being "held" for you. Apartments are rented to the first person that submits all of the following: completed application with application fee, completed co-signer application if necessary & deposit.

For this reason, it is important that every applicant, who is seriously interested in an apartment, return these necessary documents to the Resident Manager as soon as possible so the Rental Department can run all verifications and checks to fulfill Company criteria.
